2022 Notice of Change of Taxable Status

OWNER INFORMATION

Leah Krauss
PO BOX 111
Connelly, NY 12417

In accordance with the provisions of Section 510-a of the Real Property Tax Law, you are hereby notified that the taxable status of the real property identified above has been changed on this year's tentative assessment roll as follows: The exemption(s) granted on last year's final assessment roll has been discontinued.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before Grievance Day: May 24, 2022.

A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

The Assessor will be in attendance with the Tentative Roll at the Town Hall, Ulster Park on Saturday May 7th, 10:00-12:00 and May 10th & 17th between the hours of 2:00-4:00 and 6:00-8:00. Also any other Saturday before Grievance by appointment. Please call 845-331-5546 at least one day in advance.
